As long as Harriman is out of jail he "does things" that will convince Roosevelt that he is no mollycoddle.

THE SEMNOLE HERE

Revenue Cutter Back From Special Duty at The Jamestown Exposition.

WILL GO TO BEAUFORT, N. C.

Take Part in Big Railroad Celebration There Early in June—Wireless Appartus to be Installed Later No Staff Changes.

The United States Revenue Cutter Seminole, First Lieutenant Charles Satterlee in command, arrived in port yesterday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock, after a month spent on special duty during the great naval demonstration in connection with the opening days of the Jamestown Exposition. The duty, of course, was pleasant, but officers and men expressed pleasure at getting back on the regular station of the ship. There have been no changes in the official staff of the ship with the exception of the transfer of Lieut. T. G. Crapster, which was announced shortly before the cutter left port. Capt. J. H. Quinan is still near Asheville recuperating, and a letter to Lieut. Satterlee conveys the satisfactory intelligence to his many friends here that he is improving and is enjoying his stay in the mountains. His leave of absence, of course, has been extended. The ship is in fine trim, and will during the Summer have wireless apparatus installed. This has been officially announced and will add quite considerably to the efficiency of the service in these waters.

The Seminole will remain on her station here until next week, when she will proceed to Beaufort, N. C., to take part in the elaborate celebration planned in honor of the completion of the Norfolk and Southern Railway into that town. The date is June 8th and combined with the celebration of the advent of the railroad is the formal occasion of the beginning of work on the great inland waterway in which Congressmen J. H. Small and C. R. Thomas are so deeply interested. The railroads have announced special rates for the occasion and a great crowd of people from all over the State is expected. The programme is just announced and the list of speakers includes a number of notable men, including Governor Glenn, Solicitor Chas. L. Abernathey, President F. S. Gannon, of the Norfolw and Southern; Hon. F. M. Simmons, United States Senator; Hon. Lee S. Overman, United States Senator; Congressmen Small, Thomas and others. Mr. N. W. Wallace, of Beaufort, will be master of ceremonies. A big fish fry, barbecue and picnic dinner are among the more informal features arranged. Then there will be a competitive drill between the Goldsboro, Kinston and Washington military companies and the Newbern division of Naval Reserves. A list of distiguished military men are named as the judges of the drill, including Gen. Carl Woodruff, U. S. A., retired; Gen. J. F. Armfield, N. C. National Guard; Adjutant General T. R. Robertson, N. C. National Guard; Gen. F. A. Macon, N. C. National Guard; Col. Geo. L .Peterson, N. C. National Guard; Capt. Uhberroth, of the U. S. Revenue Cutter Boutwell, and Lieut. Chas. Satterlee, of the U. S. Revenue Cutter Seminole. The presentation of flags to the successful contestants in the prize drills will be by Maj. B. F. Dixon, State Auditor. Music will be furnished by the Second Regiment Band, of Kinston, and the Knights of Pythias Band, of Newbern. Mr. Thomas will be chief marshal of the exercises.

The cutter Seminole is under orders from Secretary Cortelyou, of the Treasury Department, to carry the Governor, State officers and North Carolina delegation in Congress over the Beaufort harbor and channel improvements and out to sea as far as Cape Lookout. All State officials, including members of the Supreme Court, have been invited. Both the Governor and Adjutant General hope to be present with members of their personal staff.

Fifteenth Series Matured.

The 15th series of stock in the North Carolina Home Building Association which has been in force since February 2nd 1901, matured yesterday and Secretary and Treasurer James H. Yates is president, will shortly begin a new series, the announcement of which will be made in due time.

CHURCH TO BE IMPROVED

Extensive Work at St. Paul's Lutheran House of Worship, Sixth and Market Streets — Bids Are Called for.

The plans and specifications for the material improvement and enlargement of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Sixth and Market streets, which have been under contemplation for some time, were accepted Monday night at a meeting of the building committee of the congregation in the pastor's study. The plans were drawn by Architect H .E. Bonitz, and it was decided to begin work at once. Elsewhere in today's paper the building committee calls for bids for the work, same to be in by June 15th, according to the plans and specifications, which may be seen either at the office of Mr. Bonitz or by applying to Mr. L. Hanson, chairman of the committee. The improvement and enlargement will involve an expenditure of several thousand dollars, and when the work is completed the house of worship will be one of the most commodious and conveniently arranged churches in the city.

The building committee of the church is composed of Mr. Hanson, chairman; Messrs. H. L. Vollers, John H. Rehder, M. G. Tiencken, J. G. L. Gieschen, H. E. Bonitz and Rev. W. A. Snyder. The enlargement will be in the rear, with east and west transcepts, while the entire building will be remodelled on the interior and rearranged, increasing the capacity of the main auditorium by about two hundred. A new chancel with additional council rooms, pastor and choir vestry will be provided, while the organ and lighting arrangements will be changed to suit the other improvements. New furniture will also be installed and the entire church interior beautified and made to suit the requirements of the constantly growing congregation. It is expected that the work will be completed during the Summer, and that early Fall will witness the completion of the extensive improvements and enlargements.

BLADEN CITIZEN.

Mr. Dvid B. Melvin Passed Away at Advanced Age—Family.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, May 29.—Mr. David B. Melvin, prominent citizen of this county, died at his home in White Oak on the 24th instant, in the 88th year of his age. He was married to Miss Jane Davis in 1844, and she and twelve children and a large number of grandchildren and great grad children live to mourn his departure.

He belonged to a remarkably long lived family, an evidence of the fact being that one of his great grand children had living at one time two grandmothers, two granfathers, three great grandmothers and two great grandfathers.

Mr. Melvin was a prominent and influential citizen, and a consistent member of the Baptist Church, and always gave liberally of his means and influence to the church and school interests of his section.

An immense throng of people attested their respect and sympathy in attending his burial, which took place at the family graveyard near his home, where he had lived during his 68 years of his married life.

To his family he leaves a heritage of a long, useful, honest life, that was a blessing to his fellows.

PROGRESS IS SLOW

All Day in Superior Court Taken Up With Case Begun Monday.

HEARING VERY TEDIOUS

Need of Court Stenographer is Emphasized in Delay of Proceedings. Want to Continue Damage Suits Against Seaboard.

For a combination of reasons, principally the fact that the county does not provide a stenographer, the case of Captain Charles Wessell against Thorpe & Applegate is still dragging wearily on in the Superior Court, and from present indications it will be this afternoon before the issues will reach the jury. It is incumbent upon Judge Long to transcribe the salient features of the testimony, and at the same time to give due attention to the legal points involved. This is necessarily tedious, and the trial has progressed very unsatisfactorily to His Honor, who chafes under any unnecessary delay.

When court convened at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. W. B. Thorpe, of the defendant firm, resumed his testimony. The completion of this required until about noon, and after that hour Hon. John D. Bellamy, of counsel for the plaintiff, moved to dismiss under the Hinsdale act. The motion was overruled and the plaintiff began with his testimony, Capt. Wessell having gone on the stand in his own behalf. The question at controversy seems to be one of the sale of the good will of the plaintiff with certain tug boats and other river apparatus. This is set up as a counterclaim by the defence, which seems to be relying strongly on a verbal contract to this effect, Capt. Wessell later having refused to make a writing to this effect. A recess was taken yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock until 9:30 A. M. today.

An effort will probably be made to secure a continuance of the several cases against the Seaboard Air Line, set for trial at this term. Hon. John D. Bellamy, of counsel for the Seaboard, said yesterday in court that he had just received a telegram from Maj. John D. Shaw, division counsel of the Seaboard, that his wife had died at their home in Rockingham, and that personally on Monday he would have to go to Asheville to appear before Judge Pritchard in the Semler Mills cases, involving the trade mark rights to the "Point Lace" flour with which litigation the public is familiar. The continuance of these cases will be bitterly resisted by Messrs. Herbert McClammy, Bellamy & Bellamy and other attorneys for the plaintiffs in the actions against the Seaboard. One of these suits is the most important of the term, and is set for next Monday, Capt. John D. Bowen, of Wilmington, being the plaintiff. Judge Long has given no intimation of what he will probably do in these cases.

Two cases were continued yesterday. These were the Murchison National Bank against the Dunn Oil Company and the Murchison Bank against the Dunn Oil Co., and J. D. Barnes.

It is probable that the next case to be reached after the Wessell-Applegate trial will be that of Frank Meier, administrator, against the Consolidated Railways, Light & Power Company, involving heavy damages. Counsel on both sides are quoted as saying that they are ready for trial. This will probably require a week for hearing, as it will be hard fought on both sides.

Mid-Week Dance Tonight.

Warmer weather is predicted for today and as usual a large number of young people will go to Wrightsville Beach this evening to enjoy the regular mid-week dance at Lumina. Extra cars will be operated by the Consolidated Company to accommodate the traffic and there will be a late car, leaving the beach at 11:15 P .M. On Saturday the regular Summer schedule will go into effect. This will consist of a car each half hour from 6:30 A. M. to 11 o'clock at night with a later schedule on special occasions. The last car down at night will be at midnight and the last to leave the beach will be 11:45 P. M.

Mrs. Mary L. Gore Dead.

Friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary L. Gore, which occurred Monday evening at the family home, No. 821 South Front street. She was 26 years of age and leaves her husband and an infant child, nine months old; also a number of brothers and sisters and her mother, who lives in South Carolina. The funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon by Adjutant Yates, of the Salvation Army, and the remains will be taken to Leventon Church, in Brunswick county, for interment today.

Funeral of Mrs. Ottoway.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary E. Ottoway was conducted at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Burriss, No. 906 South Third street, Elder Gardner officiating. The interment took place on Myrtle Grove Sound. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. O. Brown, J. E. Brown, J. Casteen and Duncan Brown.

LANDS A BIG CONTRACT

Hannah Box Shook Company Closed Deal Yesterday for Fifteen Million Feet of Material With Big Glass Manufacturing.

One of the largest contracts ever closed by a North Carolina industrial enterprise of like character was that consummated yesterday between the Hannah Box Shook Company, of this city, and the Hazel Atlas Glass Company, of Wheeling, W. Va. The contract involves a minimum of not less than 15,000,000 nor a maximum of more than 20,000,000 feet of manufactured lumber and will necessitate the installation of new machinery and practically doubling the capacity of the present plant of the Hannah Box Shook Company, in Wilmington.

The Hazel Atlas Glass Company is one of the largest manufacturers of glass receptacles in the United States and operates six large factories at Wheeling and elsewhere, holding large contracts with the Standard Oil Company and other big concerns for furnishing jars, etc., for their vaselenes and other petroleum products. Necessarily in a business of this kind thousands of feet of lumber are required each year for the crates, etc., required in their shipping. Hitherto the company has gone in the open market and purchased the box shooks when they were needed, but recently difficulties of the trade have made the concentration of contracts desirable and Mr. W. S. Brady, vice president of the Glass Company, came to Wilmington to close the deal with the Wilmington concern. This was effected yesterday and under the terms of the agreement the Hannah Box Shook Company is to furnish each year not less than 3,000,000 nor more than 4,000,000 feet of the box shooks per year for a period of five years. Of course, the trade agreements as to sizes, etc., are provided for in the details of the contract. The Wilmington company will begin on the contract June 1st and in taking this order will proceed at once to enlarge its plant by putting in one of the latest Corliss engines and doubling its machinery capacity in other respects. This is necessary in order to enable the company to take care of this later contract with existing Standard Oil and Fels Naptha soap contracts with which the factory is now engaged practically up to its present capacity. These three concerns will practically take the output of the factory for five years to come. For the Hazel Atlas contract alone 120 cars of the finished product will be shipped per year and 200 cars of rough lumber will be required to saw this amount of the shooks. All told in the five-year contract something over $300,000 is involved.

Mr. Brady, who came here to close the deal with the Wilmington company, spent several days in the city conferring with the Hannah Box Shook people, and has made quite a number of personal friends. He has added very materially to one of Wilmington's most progressive enterprises and Wilmington is very glad that he came.

AS TO PARK SUGGESTIONS

Plazas Might be Converted Into Playgrounds—Communication.

(Communicated.)

As Wilmington is practically assured of a public park, through the generosity of Mr. William A. French and Mr. George R. French, which called forth other offers of land for the purpose would it not be well for our city fathers to turn their attention to "Resting Places for Pedestrians?" That such places, where strangers can rest without feeling that they are interfering with others, are needed, admits of no doubt and requires no argument, neither is there a problem to solve or obstacles to overcome. Dotted throughout the city are pretty plazas which are well shaded, and all that is required to convert them into comfortable and cozy places of rest is to keep the grass cut and put park benches in them. The plazas on Market street, east of Fourth are well adapted for the use suggested, as well as those on North Fifth street. One of the prettiest blocks to be seen in any city, is that on Third street between Dock and Orange streets where the four rows of beautiful oaks form natural bowers and avenues which would afford much pleasure and comfort, if the plaza or center of the street was provided with neat benches. There are doubtless many other attractive spots which could be utilized, adding comfort and beauty to the city. It goes without saying that the city would see that these "little parks" were kept clean and free from scraps of paper or other litter which would destroy their beauty. Perhaps the most urgent needs along this line is resting places in the business centers. In other cities the government property is open to the use of the public and if a request was made by the Board of Aldermen and trades bodies of this community to the proper authorities there can be but little doubt that the United States government would lay walks through its grounds around the postoffice and place benches on the grass for the use of the public. The grounds about the City Hall, Academy of Music and Court House could also be utilized and the entire project as suggested could be accomplished with the expenditure of a very trifling amount of money.

THE TAX ORDINANCE

PROPERTY RATE REDUCED

Increased Valuation of Real Estate Makes This .Possible—Rearrangement of License Schedules. Subjects of Taxation Remain About Same.

The Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance were in session little less than two hours and a half last night in the office of the latter board at the City Hall, the matter under consideration being the general tax ordinance of the city. The ordinance was practically agreed to by the two boards, and will later be ratified in official form. One or two clauses in the ordinance were postponed for further consideration at another meeting tonight at which the annual budget of expenses will be agreed upon.

At the meeting last night there were present Chairman McQueen and Messrs. Wilder, Yates, McNair and Tiencken, of the Board of Audit and Finance; Mayor Springer and Aldermen Karr, Rathjen, O'Brien, Wood, Yopp, Bolles, King and Jewell; Capt. T. D. Meares, clerk of the Board of Audit and Finance; City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler; Assistant City Clerk and Treasurer White and City Attorney Bellamy. Upon motion of Chairman Bolles, of the Finance Committee of the Aldermen, Mr. McQueen was called to the chair and Capt. Meares acted as clerk. Mr. McQueen at the outset defined the position of the Board of Audit and Finance, and himself in the conference, stating that he noticed in the proposed budget that a number of salaries had been increased, and that while the Board was always open to recommendations in this respect he held that the Board of Audit and Finance had this entirely in its province, and was alone responsible in the matter of fixing salaries. Mr. O'Brien spoke of the duties and privileges of the Aldermen in regard to recommendations and Mr. McQueen replied that the Board was, of course, open to suggestions as he had just said, but that the Board of Audit and Finance had entire charge of that matter and was responsible to the public for the administration of such affairs.

Chairman Yopp, of the Sanitary Committee, at the opening, referred to the need of more systematic drainage to take the place of open drains and the like and introduced a Mr. Owens, employed in the department for several years, who spoke of the need of more of such work, and the desirability of keeping a record of all underground conduits.

The most important change in the tax ordinance was the reduction in the rate on real and personal property from $1.50 to $1.40 on the one hundred dollars valuation. This was in view of advices received that the new assessment of property would show an increase of from $80,000 to $90,000 in valuation. This action was with the understanding that if the figures of the assessors would justify it when official report is made, a still greater reduction will be made. Changes in the license taxes were made as follows:

Tax of $25 per annum on railroad soliciting agents stricken out under opinion of the city attorney that it was illegal.

Automobile dealers increased from $6 to $9 per quarter ,and made to include agents for or repairers of machines. Similar tax on bicycle dealers was reduced from $6 to $3 per quarter.

Bill distributors were stricken out of the $50 clause and put under head of bill posters, the tax for which was reduced from $100 to $50 per year.

Bottlers of non-alcoholic drinks were increased from $9 to $10 per quarter.

Tax of $3 per quarter on blacksmiths or horse shoers, carpenters, electrical workers, gas fitters, painters, tinners, upholsterers and paper hangers was continued as at present except for the benefit of the individual artisan or mechanic the stipulation was made that the tax should apply only where two or more hands are employed, others to pay nothing. plumbers a tax of $50 per year was imposed where two or more hands aer employed, others to pay nothing.

Tax of $12.50 per quarter on brokers, real estate, bonds or stocks, was stricken out as the State imposes all the tax allowed under the law.

Tax on coal and wood dealers was made $15, instead of $16, per quarter.

Tax on contracting builders was decreased from $6 to $3 per quarter, where two or more hands are employed.

Rate on cotton factories was reduced from $80 to $60 per year.

Tax on distillers and compounders of spirituous or malt liquors was made to include rectifiers, all at $50 per month.

Dealers in eggs and poultry, harness, peanuts, etc., were put under the general head of dealers at practically the same tax.

A tax of $5 per quarter was imposed on moving picture theatres.

Express companies were regretfully stricken from the list, as the Leg-

THE BUREAUCRATIC IDEA.

At its meeting in New York the other day the National Association of Manufacturers renewed the demand for a "non-partisan tariff commission," to handle the question of the tariff and regulate it according to the needs of the country. The Association's idea is to take the tariff out of politics. However, who ever heard of the tariff's being regulated according to the "needs of the county?" While the tariff is depended on to furnish the country with sufficient revenues to conduct its business, it is regulated to suit special interests—not to suit their needs, but to actually give them a bounty at the expense of the people without regard to whether the special interests need it or not. A tariff commission, doubtless, would handle it in the same way as it is handled in Congress—in a political way, and not half so well as Congress can do it. The tariff, which is a question of taxation, is a legislative function, and it is doubted whether Congress could establish any such commission and invest it with power to handle the question. Congress can establish a commission to carry out the laws of Congress, but it is held that Congress cannot establish a commission to make laws itself, so what would be the use of a tariff commission, except as a mere executive body to carry out the Acts of Congress.

The Prosidence Journal, a Republican paper, lays considerable stress upon the recommendation of the manufacturers that "the tariff should be taken out of politics," but the Washington Post alludes to it as "attempting the impossible."

That is just about the truth of it, but the "commission" idea is growing in this country, and that is another way of saying that we are growing more bureaucratic in our ideas. A commission is only another name for a bureau, such as exists under the monarchical forms of government in Europe. While not speaking upon this same subject, the New Orleans Picayune comes along and tells us how this commission idea has taken hold of Democratic Texas. The Picayune goes on to say:

"One of the strangest developments of government in the hands of the people where they choose their own lawmakers and elect their own executive and administrative officials is the voluntary discarding of their forms and principles of representative government, and the placing of themselves and their public affairs in the hands of an absolute autocracy.

"This is seen in the behavior of the people of several Texas cities, where the people have got tired of managing their public business and have secured from their State Legislature government by commission. It was first tried in the Empire State of the South by the people of Galveston some years ago, when their city had been frightfully wrecked by a cyclone. Property to the amount of many millions had been destroyed, the population of the city had suffered death to the extent of one-third of the whole, and the city government was helpless to rebuild and revivify the ruined municipality.

"A remedy was found by placing the city in the hands of a commission armed practically with absolute powers. The result was that the city was rebuilt, and it was protected from future engulfment by the sea by means of a wall or breakwater guarding the city on its ocean front.

"The success of government by commission in Galveston was so signal that other Texan cities have sought and obtained it. Houston is one of these, and Fort Worth is another. The Fort Worth Telegram, announcing the adoption by the Legislature of the new charter for that city, declares that a close analysis of its powers reveals a startling change from governmental theories followed for more than a century in American cities. It is a concrete expression of centralized power, against which republics have waged war since the birth of popular government. No greater relative power was ever bestowed upon a governing body than is given the Mayor and four commissioners in Fort Worth's new organic law. Dissatisfied with an existing government, the people have chosen a new form. In it they abandoned democratic and republican precedent for an autocratic principle, with the saving clause of a popular recall."

The Picayune is eminently correct when it declares that those Texans have "abandoned Democratic and Republican precedent for an autocratic principle." There is nothing Democratic or Republican in the idea, and what we would like to know is how such ideas have been transplanted into free America. Is it the result of the large infusion of foreigners into our body public and politic? Or is it the outgrowth of new needs that popular government is not capable of supplying? It may be so that the people are getting too busy and growing too rich to attend to their own affairs and want a commission to take the responsibility off their hands. That there is danger in it can not be doubted, and we are not yet prepared to believe that the people are incapable of handling their own public affairs. The Picayune, expressing further surprise at the "commission," or beaurocratic idea, goes on to say:

"The people have for years demanded things apparenty beyond the power of the old government to grant. New schools, extended sewers, paved streets, water works extensions, better police protection and sanitary regulations and the whole category of public necessities. What was done was not deemed sufficient. They look to the new commission to lead them out of the municipal wilderness. These facts bring the commission face to face with a grave and stern responsibility. To do the things demanded by a militant, earnest citizenship money must be raised, and the Commission is vested with autocratic powers in this respect. It fixes the valuation and makes the tax levy without hindrance or check. It fixes the annual budget and has power to raise necessary funds to carry out the provisions of the budget.

"The tax levy cannot be increased, for the new charter provides that it cannot be over $1.75. The real work of the Commission, in the matter of revenue, lies then in equalizing the assessment and making it large annual budget. To do this and to meet the public demands the assessed valuation of property must be largely increased.

"All serious popular revolutions have grown out of taxation. When people demand all manner of public improvements and the general distribution of public bounty they ought to understand that those things so eagerly desired can only come through taxation. But it seems that our people are crying for a paternal government that will hand out benefits broadcast without thinking of where the money is to come from. When they blindly give up their democratic-republican principles of government, in which the people are themselves the responsible rulers, they will find too late that they have voluntarily put themselves in chains, and sooner or later an absolute despotism will result. The movement that is going on in American politics today, regardless of party, is enough to create the belief that many of the free citizens of our great Republic have renounced the principles of self-government and want a master."

The whole question is one of deep interest, and the Picayune is so grounded in the safe Democratic idea, that it is able to place the thing in its proper light. Commissions as mere executive bodies might be all right, but with absolute powers we can't stand for them. In the language of the individual who said it, "Whither are we drifting?"

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The Columbia State is infomed that "many farmers are now selling their cotton for 10 cents, for October delivery." How about that, President Moore?—Charlotte Chronicle.

—No better man ever lived than the late Dr. Thomas H. Pritchard, the Baptist divine who did a surpassingly good work in Charlotte, and yesterday Charlotte did itself honor in dedicating a church to his memory.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—The Observer agrees with The Wilmington Star that those Chickasaw girls of Indian Territory do not deserve success in their attempt to draw upon North Carolina for husbands. If the home demand is to be fully supplied there will be no surplus for export.—Charlotte Observer.

—Wonder if many of the financiers of this section know that Raleigh township is considering selling back to the railroad that second mortgage bond issue of the Raleigh and Pamlico Railroad at 75 cents on the dollar. Wonder if that's why they haven't jumped in and offered more for them.—Raleigh Times.

—A New York physician has the most grewsome piece of furniture in the United States. It is the skeleton of a large man standing erect, with the right hand grasping a long spear. This weapon is of oak, with several projections, and is used as a hatrack. In the center of the skull is set a clock, and the ribs form a cage in which the physician keeps his pet cockatoo. The bird has been taught to say, "We're only mortal."—New York Press.

—It is reported that the interstate commerce commission found that Mr. Harriman was guilty of wicked practices, but that he violated no law so far as the commission could see. The laws of our country must be in a rather peculiar state if a man can be guilty of wicked practices without violating any of them. Or perhaps the commission just put in that "wicked practices" part of it to let Mr. Roosevelt out in demnominating Mr. Harriman "an undesirable citizen."—Raleigh Times.

TWINKLINGS.

—"A woman makes a great change in a man's life." "Yes, and she takes a great deal of change out of it, too."—Columbus Dispatch.

—The Magistrate—Are you guilty or not? The Prisoner—Well, your honor, I think I am, but I'd like to be tried to make sure.—Sketch.

—"Frankie, dear, I don't think you have washed your face and hands, as I told you to." "No, ma; but I've dusted them very carefully."—Punch.

—She—Allen married before he had completed his education. He—The same could be said of any man that married—Smart Set.

—"The old man was one in a thousand!" "Yes; his three sons are all ciphers." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

"What, an old friend like you, and you refuse to lend me 50 francs?" "Yes." "Well, at any rate, give me 20 sous to pay the cab that I took to come and ask you."—Bon Vivant.

Chollie—The idea of a man sending a business letter with a P. S. Chappie—Doosid bad form, surely. Chollie—But that isn't the worst of it. In this case it means "Please Settle."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Mabel (aged 6)—Ain't you afraid of our big dog? The Parson (very thin) —No, my dear. He would not make much of a meal off me. Mabel—Oh, but he likes bones best.—Chicago Daily News.

—Old Blunt—Ah! Miss Nightingale, that "Winter Song" was charming. It carried me back to the days of my childhood. The Singer—I am so glad you liked it. Old Blunt—Why, I could actually hear the cattle bellowing, the old windmill creaking, and the discordant winds howling about the doors.—Tit-Bits.

THE CHANGE OF LIFE

MRS HENRY LEE MRS. FRED CERTIA

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms.

This is the most critical period of her whole existence and every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active and with a host of nervous irritations make life a burden. At this time also cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, melancholia, dread of impending evil, palpitation of the heart, irregularities, constipation and dizziness are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when this great change may be expected.

Mrs. Fred Certia, 1014 So. Lafayette Street, So. Bend, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the ideal medicine for women who are passing through Change of Life. For several months I suffered from hot flashes, extreme nervousness, headache and sleeplessness. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I had made up my mind there was no help for me until I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, my bad symptoms ceased, and it brought me safely through the danger period, built up my system and I am in excellent health. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound unsurpassed for women during this trying period of life."

Mrs. Henry Lee, 60 Winter Street, New Haven, Conn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After suffering untold misery for three years during Change of Life I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wrote you of my condition, and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and followed your advice, and to-day I am well and happy. I can now walk anywhere and work as well as anyone, and for years previous I had tried but could not get around without help. I consider your medicine a sovereign balm for suffering women."

Women passing through this critical period should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If there is anything about your case you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It is free and has guided thousands to health.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health, actually thousands of women, you cannot well say without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." It is your duty to yourself and family to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The Greensboro Keeley Institute!

The Only one in North Carolina

Note of Warning

To The Public:

The Keeley Cure has now been in successful operation for 28 consecutive years and the merits and reputation of the Dr. Leslie E. Keeley Remedies have been throughly established. Because of this fact, many imitators are seeking to turn this knowledge to their own advantage by falsely claiming that they are able to sell and administer our remedies and treatment. It should be borne in mind that the Keeley Remedies are only to be obtained at establishments known by the uniform name of The Keeley Institute. There is one or more of these establishments in nearly every State in the Union, besides several in foreign countries. THERE IS ONLY ONE KEELEY INSTITUTE IN THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, AND THAT IS LOCATED AT GREENSBORO. At all Keeley Institutes the remedies used are procured from our laboratory, and in all cases they are administered by physicians who have been especially instructed by us. It follows, therefore, that all other establishments claiming to be able to sell our remedies and administer our treatment are obtaining money under false pretenses and will be dealt with accordingly. The public is warned that under no circumstances can Keeley remedies or treatment be obtained except at authorized Keeley Institutes. These imitators sometimes adopt similar names to those by which our remedies are known, but if patients will take pains to see that they are in an authorized Keeley Institute they need not fear imposition. The Keeley remedies will cure inebriety, all kinds of drug using, the tobacco habit and neurasthenia; they are never administered in hospitals and no patients are treated at Keeley Institutes for other than the above named diseases.

THE LESLIE E. KEELEY CO.,
Dwight, Illinois.

THE KEELEY INSTITUTE, at Greensboro, N. C., is the only one in this State, and all representations that there is in this State any cure that is identical with or the same as the Keeley Double Chloride of Gold Cure, are malicious, false and made for the purpose of deceiving. We learn with indignant regret that such claim is being made, and feeling that if it be hurtful to us it will prove even more disastrous to those who are deceived thereby, we sound this note of warning.

For the Future.

The secret of happiness is inward. People had good times when there were no friction matches, no brilliantly illuminated streets, no steamboats or railroads, no sewing machines, no postage stamps, no comfortably heated homes, no telegraphs or trolleys. The elements of happiness are not in things, but in human nature itself. But the fairer conditions, the greater opportunities, which the marvelous modern inventions afford to the masses of our humanity should augment our joy and expand our hopes. The most obvious fact of human history is that of progress. The race is following a flying and a growing ideal. It is inspired and saved by hope. Every helpful invention, every improvement of sanitary conditions, every new ray of intellectual and spiritual illumination, every scientific achievement, every amelioration of physical suffering, every new avenue of enjoyment, every victory of righteousness, every faithful deed in lowly and lofty places, increases the splendor and the power of our vision of the future.—Leslie's Weekly.

Surf Riding Is a Fine Sport.

At Waikiki, near Honolulu, is a famous bathing beach. Here winter and summer the surf canoes or, better yet, the surf boards come dancing in on the long rollers, and men become amphibious. There is no sensation quite comparable to riding a surf board on a Pacific roller. It is tobogganing on a moving hillside of water, or, if you are clever enough to stand up on your board, it is taking this hillside on a single big skee. The beach runs far out before it shelves into deep water, and at high tide the breakers begin to mount almost half a mile from the shore line. You go out there with your surf board and wait for the wave. You learn to catch it at the right moment, throw your board inshore and climb upon it just as the crest of the roller mounts and catches you. Then on this crest you sail in toward the shore, to slide down at last when the wave breaks, down the foaming incline into shallow water and churning foam. It is royal sport.—Travel Magazine.

Strenuous Chivalry.

It is complained that modern conditions are killing "the chivalry of the middle ages." But mediaeval tales and romances show what that chivalry really was. Wife beating was a common incident on the part of those knights and gentlemen whose gallantry was a mere convention. The Chevalier de la Tour-Landry in his book of counsels to his daughters tells them the story of a woman who used to contradict her husband in public. One day, after expostulating in vain, he knocked her down, then kicked her face and broke her nose. "And so," comments the good chevalier, "she was disfigured for life, and thus, through her ill behavior and bad temper, she had her nose spoiled, which was a great misfortune to her." But not a word is said about the husband's brutality.

An Ungallant Actor.

A well known American actor, who is old enough not to consider himself a matinee idol by any means, was somewhat surprised and pleased in a St. Louis hotel a short time ago when a pretty girl stopped him in the corridor and presented him with a rose, without saying a word. He was more surprised and less pleased to receive a note the following day reminding him of the incident and asking him to send the giver of the flower two seats at the theater in which he was playing "as a memento of the occasion."

"My dear young lady," the actor replied, waxing sarcastic as he realized what had been the object of the attention he had been paid, "I would be glad to send you the seats you ask for, but, on consultation with the manager of the theater, I have been informed that the seats are all fastened down and that he is opposed to having them sent away as souvenirs in any event, so that you will have to be contented with an autograph for a souvenir of your benevolence of yesterday instead."—Harper's Weekly.

Beats Radium For Cost.

If you object to paper money, but wish to carry big values in small compass, you might do worse than lay in a stock of best lenses for microscopes. Weight for weight, gold is not nearly so valuable as glass in the form of powerful lenses, and an ordinary purse filled with such lenses might easily represent a fortune. The record increase in the value of the manufactured article over the raw material is probably made by this variety of glass, which multiplies itself 50,000,000 times. The front lens of a micro objective instrument costing about £1 weighs no more than about .0017 of a gram; hence the value of such lenses to the weight of about two and a quarter pounds would be about £800,000. The cost of making this weight of glass is 1½ pence to 3 pence, and thus when worked up into the shape of a lens the glass has increased in value about 50,000,000 times.—London Express.

A Battle of Butterflies.

"A battle of butterflies," said the Japanese viscount firmly.

"Impossible!" cried the lady on his right.

"Oh," the viscount insisted, "the thing is authenticated. It happened on Aug. 20, 1889. Tales and poems without number have been written on it. On the evening of Aug. 20 two opposing armies of the butterflies fought an aerial battle between Nojima and Kavasaki Mura. The fight continued till sunset, when the smaller army turned and retreated, the victors pursuing it till all were lost in the rosy sunset haze. The ground beneath the combat was thickly strewn with wounded and dead warriors. The battle drew a thousand people. It occurred about thirty feet up in the air. The spectators were amazed and horror stricken to see these gentle blue butterflies grappling and struggling furiously and silently in a blue blizzard above their heads."

INTERESTING MAYOR'S COURT.

Several Cases of More Than Passing Importance—Chauffeur Arraingned.

In the municipal court yesterday Thos. Martin, colored, was the defendant in three cases, being charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, carrying a concealed weapon and firing a pistol in the city limits. The evidence was that about 9 o'clock Monday night J. H. Wilson and Rev. E. R. Bennett, a prominent colored pastor, were passing Martin's house near Sixth and Church streets, and a little girl ran out crying that her father was shooting her mother to death. The pastor and Wilson stopped to question the child, when Martin came up and gave the interlopers to understand they had nothing to do with what was going on. He hurled a brick into Wilson's face, and the two men grappled and fell to the street, Rev. Bennett later pulling them apart and disarming the belligerent, later phoning for the patrol wagon. Martin was locked up and yesterday was bound over to the higher court in each of the two cases for carrying a concealed weapon and an assault with a deadly weapon. He couldn't give required bond of $50 in each case and was sent over to jail for the Superior Court. Judgment was suspended in the other case. He was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq.

P. M. Foarde, chaffeur for Mr. Pembroke Jones, was charged on a warrant with speeding his automobile in the vicinity of 17th and Market streets Monday afternoon, the paper having been served yesterday morning by Officer C. G. Jones. It was Mr. Foard's first offence in any country for exceeding the speed laws and the Mayor let him off with the nominal fine of $5 and costs. He was represented by Brooke G. Empie, Esq., and the fine was paid without protest.

John Ellerbee, colored, charged with the larceny of a boat from Sturgeon's Creek, was bound to the higher court. W. P. Gafford, Esq. represented the negro and said he would not raise the question of jurisdiction. Other cases yesterday were of trifling importance.

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at R. R. Bellamy, Druggist.

Tax on pawnbrokers was reduced from the prohibitive sum of $500 per year to $25 per quarter, it having been held that perhaps these are sometimes necessary evils.

Piano and organ dealers were taxed $10 per year, the maximum allowed under the State law.

The tax on social clubs was stricken out, after some discussion.

The City Attorney was requested to look into the legal status of proposed license tax on excursion steamers, steamship and steamboat companies, steam tugs ,telephone and telegraph companies, it being desired to reach all those if possible.

Origin of Curtain Calls.

The first curtain call took place on the evening of Feb. 26, 1743. On that memorable evening Voltaire's "Merope" was performed for the first time in Paris. The author was known to the Paris public, but nothing that they had seen of his had pleased them so much as "Merope," and the enthusiasm found expression in noisy demands to see the author. In a letter Voltaire says this of the incident: "They dragged me out and led me by force to the box occupied by the Duchesse de Villars and her daughter-in-law. The whole theater seemed to have gone mad—all shouted to the duchesse to kiss me. The noise became so great that the lady finally obeyed. So I was, like Alain Chartier, publicly kissed, but he was asleep, while I was wide awake." Now authors answer similar calls by appearing before the curtain. They gain in so far that they can be seen better by their audience, but they must dispense with the duchesse's kiss—at least in public.—Berliner Tageblatt.

Pronunciation of "Theatre."

If "theatre" was originally written "theater" in English, has its pronunciation also varied among the orthodox—that is to say, was there ever a time when correct speakers said "theayter," as many of the incorrect still do? There is no direct evidence in verse of a serious kind for such pronunciation so far as we know. Shakespeare certainly pronounced the word as we do now, says a London journal. But since "theayter" does really represent a long "a" of the original Greek and Latin it is not easy to understand how the vulgar could have blundered on to it of their own accord. It would have been more comprehensible if they had turned an orthodox "theayter" into "theater," just as the second "a" in "Amasis" goes too often popularly shortened now. The French language has had to mark the length of the "a" in "theatre" by giving it a rather irregular circumflex accent.

Luck In Falling.

"It's a peculiar thing the tricks that luck will now and then play a chap," said a prominent physician recently. "Take, for instance, the breaking of bones in one's body. Did you ever stop and think how very many hard and high falls a man can have, light on rocky ground with half his body twisted under the other half, so to speak, and come off with not even a scratch? Then, again, a fellow will just trip over his own foot and, falling to the ground, break a leg or an arm. A good many will say it all depends on how one alights, but that seems to have absolutely nothing to do with it, as I have seen a man alight in a certain way from a high fall and never injure himself, and then again have I seen a second chap alight in the same identical way and break a leg and an arm."—Columbus Dispatch.

Diplomatic Reticence.

The social reformer was paying a visit to the convicts in the penitentiary and asking them various questions.

"And what are you doing here, my friend?" he said to a good looking man in the shoeshop.

"Making shoes," was the reply that discouraged any further inquisition in that direction.

Discharging the Cook.

"Well, cook's gone at last, John," said Mrs. B.

"Good. You must have had more courage than I gave you credit for to discharge her."

"I didn't do it. She discharged herself. I flattered her so about her cooking that she thought she was too good to stay with us, and off she went."

Music Hath Charms.

"Waiter!" called the customer in the restaurant where an orchestra was playing.

"Yes, sir."

"Kindly tell the leader of the orchestra to play something sad and low while I dine. I want to see if it won't have a softening influence on this steak!"—Tit-Bits.

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at R. R. SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Charlotte, May 27: Dr. David Glenn Thompson, of Fort Mill, S. C., 17 miles south of this city, committed suicide early this morning at his home by cutting his throat from ear to ear. Dr. Thompson had made threats to kill himself previously. He picked up a razor at 2 A. M., telling his wife that he was going out to trim a corn that was hurting him. The deceased was beloved and honored by the entire community. He was twenty-nine years of age.

—The Swannanoa Valley Railway Company, with principal o ffice at Black Mountain, was chartered by the Secretary of State at Raleigh on Monday. The object is to build, maintain equip and operate a street or suburban railway from Asheville to Swannanoa Station, Black Mountain, Montreat and other places in the Swananoa Valley. The authorized capital stock is $300,000, with $1,200 subscribed. The incorporators are Messrs. F. T. Meriwether, Ed. S. Caldwell, P. R. Moale, Hugh La Barbe, James M. Chiles and W. R. Whitson.

—Salisbury, May 27: The body of Dixie P. Robertson, a well known railroad conductor of this city, was found lying on a switch near the Salisbury Passenger station this morning. He was discovered by Yard Conductor S. L. Canup, who reported the matter to the coroner. Apparently intoxicated, when he found he held in his hand with the grip of death a corkscrew and a flask of whiskey lay by his side. His head and back were badly bruised and mashed. It is believed that he was killed by an outgoing train. He is survived by his wife, who was at Statesville at the time of his death.

—Raleigh News and Observer, May 28: Col. Arrington, private secretary to Governor Glenn, has been informed of the discovery of the graves of two North Carolina Confederate soldiers in Maryland. While plowing up an orchard on a farm, one mile west of Antietam battlefield, a farmer came across the remains of six Confederate soldiers in a fair state of preservation. The remains of two of the soldiers have been indentified as those of P. D. Herring, of the First North Carolina Volunteers, and A. W. Spaight, of the Third North Carolina Volunteers. Unless claimed by relatives the remains will probably be carried to Hagerstown, Md., and buried in Washington cemetery, where lie the bodies of 4,000 Confederates, killed at Antietam, South Mountain and Gettysburg.

—Raleigh News and Observer: There were two marriages in the family of Mr. Needham Brooks, R. F. D. No. 1, on Sunday, and in both cases a daughter of his married, despite the objection of her parents. One of the marriages occurred in Raleigh, Justice of the Peace O. L. Parham officiating, and at the hour of the marriage the father of the young woman was in pursuit. One of his daughters, Miss Ada Brooks, ran away in the early part of the day with Mr. Hubert Wall, to be married. Mr. Brooks learned about it and it is said he accused Miss Cornelia Brooks, another daughter, of aiding in the elopement of the daughter who was gone. Soon she had ran away with Mr. George W. Stevens and they came to Raleigh and were married.

—Jackson, May 27: The pastors of Northampton county met Rev. R. L. Davis, State organizer of the Anti-Saloon League Association of Northampton county. Rev. J. C. Humble, of Jackson was elected chairman, and J. B. Taylor, of Seaboard, secretary and treasurer. The fully endorses the platform of the Anti-Saloon League formed at the State Convention in Raleigh last January, and pledges its hearty support to the cause of State prohibition, which we believe would carry by a large majority in Northampton county. Having observed the operations of the dispensary in our midst at Seaboard and Jackson, we condemn it as a diabolical delusion and a snare of the devil. The citizens of these communities view it in this light as is evidenced by the fact that they have overthrown it.

—Chapel Hill, N. C., May 27: Governor R. B. Glenn addressed the students of the University in Gerrard Hall last night on the subject of "North Carolina's Need of Strong, Christian Young Men." "No individual is a true success in life," said Governor Glenn, "unless he is filled with the Christian spirit, nor can a State succeed without it. North Carolina needs Christian men because the future of the State depends upon what her young men are today. To the young men of her colleges she looks especially. They have had greater advantages. From them much more is expected, and this Christian spirit is needed today more than ever before to check the evils of commercial wealth. In it is to be found the solution of the child labor problem and many others which confront the State. By living lives which exemplify the golden rule, lives patterned on Christ, the men of the State must insure her progress." The Governor came to Chapel Hill at the invitation of the Young Men's Christian Association.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 28.—The cotton market was moderately active today, sales being estimated at 350,000 bales. Fluctuations were somewhat irregular, but prices ruled under the closing figures of last night during the greater part of the session and closed steady at a net decline of 5 to 11 points. The opening was steady at a net decline of 2 to 6 points, owing to somewhat disappointing cabels and clearing weather in the belt ,although temperatures remained too low for the best interest of the crop ,according to the ideas of local bulls. Expectations of a bullish weekly weather bureau report at midday and very bullish private crop advices from the South rallied the market shortly after the opening and during the early session prices sold up to a net advance of about 2 to 4 points on the active months on covering and some fresh buying through wire and commission houses. The western belt forecast calling for showers but warmer weather seemed to make a favorable impression on local operators, and toward midday the market sagged off, with prices declining sharply after the weekly report was issued, reading more favorably than some had looked for. A few loss orders were caught on the decline on the loss of 12 to 15 points on the active months, but after these were executed there was a patrial recovery on covering. A Wall street firm issued a crop report estimating the increase in acreage at 4.7 per cent., and the average condition at 78 per cent. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8c higher.

Receipts at the ports today, 10.064 bales, against 12,337 last week, and 17,725 last year. For the week, 50,000 bales, against 54,432 last week, and 78,908 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 1,743 bales, against 2,364 last year, and at Houston, 2,374 bales, against 3,378 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady 10 points lower; middling uplands, 12.25; middling gulf 12.50; sales 100.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, May 28.—The advance of half a cent a yard in bleached cotton has been general in the dry goods market. Since the advance of 1-2 a yard in drills, the business offered has increased. Print cloths are very strong, and convertibles are being bought into next year. There is a temporary lull in the buying of carpets and rugs. Linings are strong and finished cambrics were advanced 1-8c a yard during the day. Better reports of the condition of the trade in China were contained in cables reports received today. Sales of drills have been made to India. Cotton yarns are very much firmer and higher. The general dry goods market is quite in the jobbing and retail houses, but very strong in the primary markets.

What wonder so many thousands of women cannot truthfully say that they are happy! Are you? Happiness cannot be called complete without health, and health is best obtained by which has made many thousands happy in restored health and strength. "The doctors said I had nervous prostration, but gave me no relief," writes Lizzie Matthews, of Mt. Vernon, Ga. "I was sick for nine years. I could hardly eat and could not sleep. My back and hips ached, I was very irregular and would have to stay in bed two or three days. I have used 3 bottles of Cardui, and now I can say that my health is better than for the past nine years." Cardui relieves pain, regulates fitful functions, strengthens your weakest organs, makes you well and HAPPY. Try it.

MUST RESPECT BLUE JACKETS

JACKIES ARE TURNED DOWN

Not Wanted at Dance in Naval Garb. Secretary Metcalf Has Matter in Hand and Will Take Legal Steps.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, May 28.—Discrimination against the blue jacket uniform of the navy at the dancing pavilion of the Pine Beach and Aumsement Park, a resort adjacent to the Jamestown Exposition, has led Secretary Metcalf to vigorous action.

Complaint was made to the Navy Department by Lieut. J. V. Babcock, commanding the U. S. S. Truxton on May 16th. The substance of this report and position taken by Secretary Metcalf in the matter is given by him in the following letter to Governor Swanson, of Virginia, dated May 22:

"This Department is in receipt of an unofficial report from the commanding officer of the United States Steamship Truxton, dated Pine Beach, Va., May 16th, 1907, with regard to a case of disrespect to the service uniform which has occurred during the sojourn of the flotilla off Pine Beach.

"The commanding officer of the Truxton states that the dancing pavilion of Pine Beach Park refuses admittance to men in blue jackets uniforms; at the same time grants unqualified admittance to soldiers in uniform. On receipt of complaint from well behaved and self-respecting men of the vessel, a first-class petty officer was instructed to apply for admittance, and if refused, to see the manager and ask reasons for such actions. Such direction being carried out. S. E. Lane, gunner's mate, of the first class, was on the 15th instant, refused admission to the dancing pavilion, the manager stating that under no circumstances would men in blue jackets uniform be admitted; that if the wished to go in and dance other clothes would be furnished them. Request was made to see the 'other clothes' mentioned, and the petty officer was shown a dressing room where a stock of white clothes were kept, 'very much similar to the regular mess attendant uniform.' On being informed that the matter would be reported to the proper authorities, the manager stated that the action would do no good and would be a waste of time.

This park is advertised as being under the management of the Columbia Amusement Company, incorporated, W. F. Crawl, president.

"As the navy is doing everything in its power to make the exposition a success, your attention is invited to this instance of apparent discrimination against the service uniform, and it is believed that some action should be taken thereon by withholding license or otherwise. If such practices be permitted the result will, this Department feels assured, prove highly prejudicial to the naval service by causing the uniform of the navy to be looked upon with disfavor.

"Commending the matter to your earnest attention, I shall be glad to be advised of such action as you may deem it appropriate to take in the premises, it being understood, of course, that whatever is done in this connection, to be of value, must be done without delay.

"Very respectfully,
"B. H. METCALF,
"Secretary."

A copy of this letter was sent to President Tucker, of the Jamestown Exposition Company by Secretary Metcalf, to which he he added: "Your interest and co-operation in the taking of such prompt steps as may be practicable for the correction of discrimination against men in the naval uniforms by any concers over whom the authorities of the exposition have jurisdiction are earnestly requested."

Both Governor Swanson and President Tucker replied to Secretary Metcalf under date of May 24th. Governor Swanson said that he should at once do everything he could personally and under the law to have the discrimination stopped. President Tucker explained that Pine Beach Park was entirely outside of the grounds of the exposition and that the Exposition Company had no authority of control over its management. Mr. Tucker expressed hearty sympathy with the Secretary's position, and said he would do everything he could as a citizen of the Commonwealth to prevent discrimination against the navy uniform.

The matter is now in the hands of the law departmet of the navy. Secretary Metcalf places no blame on the Exposition Company, inasmuch as the discrimination has occurred entirely beyond its jurisdiction, but he is determined to take all legal steps possible to prevent its continuance.

FIRE LAST NIGHT

Blaze in Round House of Atlantic Coast Line Does Slight Damage.

Fire in the round house of the Atlantic Coast Line called out the Department at 8:45 o'clock last night in response to an alarm from box 24. It appears that a runaway engine had smashed a shifting engine into an oil house and the contents were set on fire. The flames, however, were quickly put under control. The Fire Department's estimate of the loss is $150.

JUDGE LOVING NOW ON TRIAL

He Pleads Not Guilty of Murder of Young Theodore Estes.

WANT CHANGE OF VENUE

Declares Cannot Get Justice in Nelson County, Va., As Half People Are Kin to Two Families of the Tragedy.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lovingston, Va., May 28.—Former Judge W. G. Loving, manager of the Thomas F. Ryan estate here, was today indicted for the murder of Theodore Estes at Oak Ridge, near Lovingston, on April 22 following a drive during which Loving claims Estes drugged and assaulted Miss Loving, daughter of the defendant. The proceedings in the Circuit Court here today were the indictment of Loving, his arraignment, pleading of not guilty, admission to bail in sum of $7,000 and arguments for and against change of venue. The defense sought a change of venue and the afternoon session of the court was devoted to the reading of affidavits and the argument of counsel on this point. It was half past 6 o'clock before the hearing was concluded. The court announced that the decision as to change of venue would be made tomorrow morning. The case is attracting widespread interest, owing to the prominence of the parties.

Judge William R. Barksdale, of Halifax county, who had been requested by Judge Gordon to preside, reached Lovingston at 11 o'clock this forenoon and at once convened court. The grand jury which was empaneled yesterday, was discharged and the same jurors were then re-sworn. Judge Barksdale charged the jury, which after consideration lasting twenty minutes, returned a true bill. Counsel for the defense in asking for a change of venue submitted a number of affidavits, among them one from the accused who swore that he did not believe he could receive a fair trial in Nelson county, as half of the people there were related to either one family or the other. Judge Loving's bondsman is Judge John D. Horseley, of Lynchburg.

The result: A Piano we Guarantee as to material and workmanship For a Life Time. Ludden & Bates Pianos have been sold in the South and in daily use for over twenty years. They were always good but are better today than ever. There is not a piano made or sold in the south for much less than double the price that will compare with them, and the cost to Club Members is only $287 for the $400 models—Cash or $10 Cash and $8 to $10 monthly with 6 per cent. One "Free Life Insurance" goes to all Club Members, which costs you absolutely nothing. We can only furnish a few more Club Members pianos—all will be taken—probably today. Better come and join before all are gone. Time is short If you cannot come during the day we are open evenings.
